
One tile = one EAU (28,200 ha); outlines are Wetland Management Districts. Both panels share one colour scale, so tiles are directly comparable across years. Colour is strictly proportional to duck pairs (no transform).